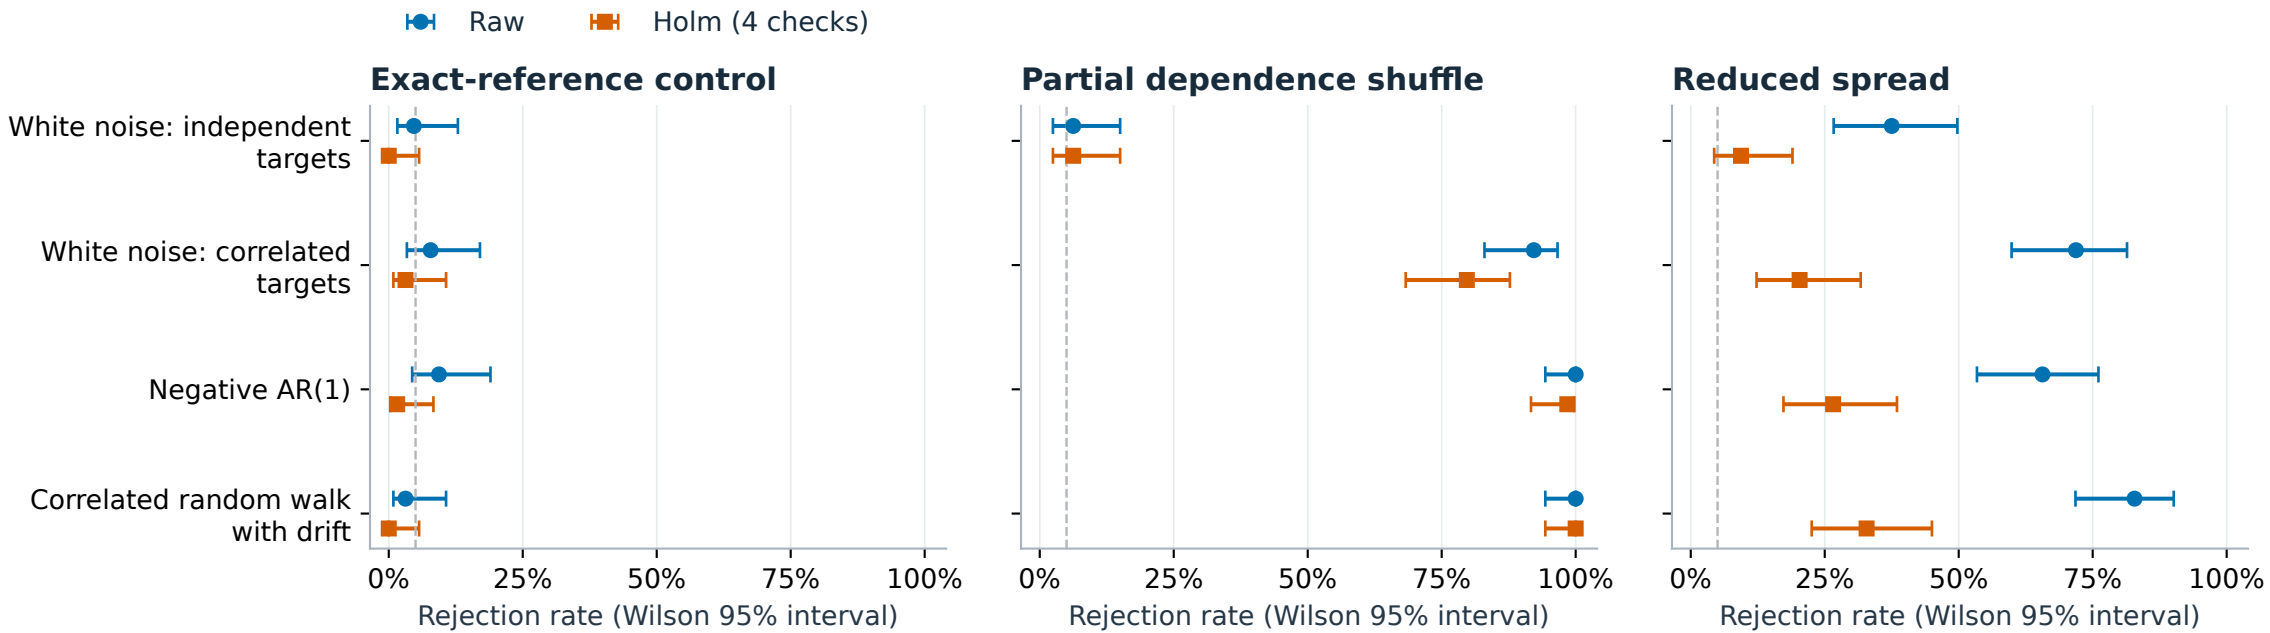
Multiplicity correction trades rejection power for fewer false alarms



64 independent suites per variant; each suite contains the four displayed checks. Dashed line: nominal 5%.
Every clean rejection is a false alarm. Shuffled factorized white noise is also a valid negative control.
Other shuffled and reduced-spread cases are alternatives. These are exact conditional-reference sample checks.